

Ancestors of Palestinian Liberation is a project aiming to uplift, learn from and celebrate the lives and work of some of the Ancestors that have shaped the diverse and resilient fabric of Palestinian culture — past, present, and forthcoming. Ancestors features seven Palestinian social, cultural, and political icons: Fadwa Tuqan, Ghassan Kanafani, Naji Al Ali, Mahmoud Darwish, Rim Banna, Edward Said and Razan Al Najjar.

أسلاف التحرير الفلسطيني
ANCESTORS OF PALESTINIAN LIBERATION

This project is a multi-faceted visual, biographical and educational tool for organizers and educators. Here are some ways to interact with it:

Download and print the portraits, biographies and educational resources developed through this project.

Explore the project on-line through the interactive key terms, biographies and expansive links.

Utilize the PowerPoint version of this project in educational settings.

Use the outreach pamphlet to let organizations, coffee shops, libraries and schools know about this resource, and how they can engage with it.

Explore the project online at:

www.PalestineAdvocacyProject.org/ancestors

